

Yalick Beek Murrup,
by Deanne Gilson

“By depicting the interaction between the water and Country, I use ancestral knowledge that is not seen but intuitive to myself, while juxtaposing them against the ancestral stone circle, embedded with the DNA of our stories”

– Deanne Gilson

Acknowledgement Of Country:

We acknowledge the Wadawurrung people as the Traditional Owners of the land, waterways and skies. We pay our respects to their elders, past and present. We acknowledge all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are part of our Greater Geelong community today.

Geelong Design Week 2022 theme - ‘taur’

Geelong Design Week 2022 theme ‘taur’ means ‘belonging’ in the language of the Wadawurrung people, Traditional Owners of Geelong (Djilang).

‘Taur’ is an invitation to examine the layers of belonging and how we design societies for real inclusion. It invites discussion about the role design can play in breaking down barriers to belonging where every design decision has the potential to include or exclude people in different ways.

Geelong Design Week 2022 celebrates all things connecting us to people and places and the role design can play in enhancing our sense and lived experience of belonging - at school, at work and at home.

This years’ feature artist is Deanne Gilson, a proud Wadawurrung woman and an emerging elder from Ballarat, in Regional Victoria. An award-winning visual artist with thirty-five years’ experience, in painting, fabric design (Kulin Seasons), clay, sculpture (public art), film and photography.

Deanne’s stunning ‘Yalick Beek Murrup’ artwork, meaning Water, Country, Spirit, was commissioned by the City of Greater Geelong as part of the On the Land exhibition at the National Wool Museum. The artwork incorporates the traditional mark of the wave pattern (often found on wooden shields) used by Deanne’s ancestors, along with the basalt plains across Wadawurrung Country.

Message from the Curatorial Group

In 2022, a sense of belonging is more important than ever, from the environment in which we live, to our inherent desire to be part of something greater than ourselves.

This desire to belong is what inspired us to choose ‘taur’ as the theme for Geelong Design Week 2022. Belonging is our emotional need to be accepted. It gives us purpose and is an essential ingredient to our satisfaction, identity, happiness, health, and longevity.

Belonging exists in everything we do, from our early years, to our home life, work and education. How we connect with people, the environment around us and the things we encounter in everyday life helps shape new adaptations, opportunities, and challenges.

With more than 60 events presented by talented and dedicated designers, artists, organisations and community groups, we look forward to building a more resilient, more sustainable and more creative future for our community where everyone belongs.

Special Launch Event

Big dreams, creative resilience and the stories we tell ourselves: an evening with Clare Bowditch

If you’re a creative in ‘The age of Covid-19’, and you find yourself entering 2022 feeling fatigued, uncertain and a little bit ‘over it’, then... fair enough! You’re not alone!

Over the past two years, our ability to anticipate, plan and execute our ‘big fat creative dreams’ really has been ripped out from under us. It’s easy to feel paralysed about ‘all the things we can’t control’, but now is not the time to give up. Instead, now is the perfect time to ‘skill-up’ and our evening with Clare Bowditch is your opportunity to do just that, playfully but thoughtfully, in the company of the community to which you belong

Thursday 17 March, 6.30pm - 9.00pm

The Palais, 297 Moorabool Street Geelong

Cost: $35* including finger food and drink on arrival (*plus booking fee)

geelong design week

17 - 27 March 2022

A message from the Deputy Mayor

From the buildings and public spaces we use, to technology and communication, fashion, food, art and culture - design is fundamental to the way we all live and the way a city functions.

And given Geelong’s status as a UNESCO City of Design, ‘clever and creative’ design is central to our future economic, environmental and social sustainability.

Geelong Design Week is an amazing opportunity for us to celebrate the remarkable design talent in our community, and learn more about the innovative work taking place.

With more than 60 events over 10 days, it is also a wonderful showcase of our region and a drawcard for visitors.

Thank you to everyone involved in putting this event together, and if you’re coming along, we hope you find inspiration and enjoyment.

CR Trent Sullivan

Deputy Mayor, City of Greater Geelong

Visiting Geelong

- Visit by car Geelong is located 1 hour south-west of Melbourne CBD via the Westgate and Princes Freeways, and the Bellarine destinations are within 30 minutes of Geelong.
- Visit by rail Regular rail services operate between Melbourne's Southern Cross Station and Geelong, and buses connect central Geelong with the suburbs and villages of The Bellarine.
- Visit by sea Port Phillip Ferries and Searoad Ferries provide connections between Geelong and the Bellarine, Docklands and Mornington Peninsula. Check individual websites for timetable information.
- Visit by air Avalon Airport and Tullamarine Airport service flights to Geelong and Victoria, check airlines for details.

Our region has so much to offer, so why not take your time and come see for yourself.

Geelong is an evolving, dynamic city with a deep sense of place and a strong industrial past. We embrace change to build a clever and creative future.

Geelong has a long and proud history as a creative city and a leader in design. Since our designation in 2017, we have committed to using creativity and innovation to build more sustainable, resilient, and inclusive communities. It fits perfectly with our 30-year, community-led vision to be internationally recognised as a clever and creative city-region.

Geelong is one of 43 Cities of Design in the UNESCO Creative Cities Network. We learn from and share knowledge with this exclusive worldwide network to improve our industrial and commercial activities, our urban form and our liveability.

Since our designation, we've integrated tangible principles to drive our design-driven work program and delivered a suite of initiatives to spotlight design, designers, creatives, and the diverse sectors where design is critical to a sustainable future and improving our way of life.

About Geelong Design Week 2022

Geelong Design Week is a 10-day community event celebrating Geelong's global recognition as Australia's only UNESCO Creative City of Design.

The 2022 program 'taur' presents a dynamic suite of events that will showcase how design can respond to our need to belong, how we are creating places and environments accessible to all and how staying connected keeps us safe and promotes a better quality of life. In Wadawurrung language, we are one with our country, we are all connected.

Geelong Design Week will showcase the talents and capabilities of our local creatives, educators and industry professionals across a variety of disciplines
